BUSINESS FROM THE FLOOR:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

Consolidation Exploration and Evaluation

The attendance and information provided at the open house was discussed. The Board agreed that another open house / special meeting was needed to get the word out to the community.

Chief Connor discussed the following items that would need to occur prior to the submittal of a ballot measure to merge with District 10: the boundary review board process, SEPA – environmental review, preparations of resolutions by both districts, procurement of legal descriptions and district maps, King County Council review and resolution for approval. Further discussion ensued on the February election timeline. The Board requested that Chief Connor provide a timeline with all the items that need to be considered for the February and April 2019 election dates.

NEW BUSINESS:

Scheduling of Special Meeting

Commissioner Meredith suggested that the public hearings could be pushed out further to allow more time for the community to become informed. The Board concurred with having another open house / special meeting on July 24, 2018 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Discussion ensued on a presentation format and the Board would like Nora and Dale from the committee to present. A special meeting with Snoqualmie officials on July 16, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. was also confirmed.
